

South Florida N'COBRA

presents

3Ds with Cynthia McKinney

Discussing the social and political ramifications of redress, repair and self-healing through the reparations movement.

Dining with good conversation, good company and delectable Afrikan delicacies.

Dancing to cut the tension and relax from the stress of a long hard day of strengthening and building the reparations movement for the descendants of enslaved Afrikans in america.

The culmination of two days of spiritual unification, inspirational orators, strategic planning, outlining action steps for the reparations movement, internal political caucusing and reparations movement working is the Party With A Purpose.
